The Indianapolis Star names Senior Health Insurance Company of Pennsylvania a “Top Workplace”

CARMEL – Senior Health Insurance Company of Pennsylvania (SHIP), a company which supports long term care insurance policies, has been named one of 2013’s Top Workplaces by The Indianapolis Star. This year, 55 small companies participated and only 40 of those were recognized with the honor. SHIP is proud to have ranked in the top 20 for this category in their first year participating.

The Top Workplaces are determined based solely on employee feedback. An employee survey is conducted by WorkplaceDynamics, LLP, a leading research firm on organizational health and employee engagement. The survey assesses the fundamentals of a company: values, execution, leadership and culture; the day-to-day job: managers, pay, training and work/life balance; and the employees’ overall feelings and motivation towards working at the company.

“We are honored to be recognized as a Top Workplace and humbled that one of our own associates nominated us to begin with,” said Annette Gobrogge, vice president of human resources at SHIP. “We work hard to maintain a positive workplace environment and provide our associates with opportunities to grow - both personally and professionally. As a result, we feel that we attract amazing talent and are able to thrive as a company.”

Among features contributing to SHIP’s standing as a Top Workplace is the company’s positive and inviting culture where associates feel appreciated and confident about their futures. Work/life balance was also ranked high by SHIP’s associates as well as the amount of formal training provided.

WorkplaceDynamics conducts regional Top Workplaces programs with 37 major publishing partners and recognizes a list of 150 National Top Workplaces. Over the past year, more than 5,000 organizations and one in every 88 employees in the U.S. have turned to WorkplaceDynamics to better understand what’s on the minds of their employees.

The Indianapolis Star published the complete list of Top Workplaces this past weekend. For more information about the Top Workplaces lists and WorkplaceDynamics, please visit www.topworkplaces.com and www.workplacedynamics.com.
